Name: _____

Reading Guide Stage Three

(pp. 44-68)

Investing in Air Power:

-Describe what happened in the United States after World War I with the aviation industry.

_____

_____

_____

-What two groups of people saved aviation from dying:

_____

_____

Barnstorming:

-Who were the barnstormers? _____

-What did they do? _____

_____

_____

-What trick always pleased the crowds? _____

-Who was Bessie Coleman? _____

_____

_____

Army Air Power Develops:

-What "feats" did Billy Mitchell organize in an attempt to demonstrate the importance of aviation?

- _____
- _____
- _____

Air Mail Speeds Up Delivery:

-The first air mail route was between which two cities? _____

-The first attempt to standardize and regulate commercial aviation occurred when Congress passed the Air Commerce Act. What did this law do? _____

_____

_____

Aviation Grows:

-What were the accomplishments of James Doolittle? _____

_____

_____

Commercial Aviation Matures:

-What was the importance of the McNary-Watres Act? _____

_____

_____

Military Air Power Developments:

-Describe why Boeing's four engine aircraft (Boeing 299) was so significant?_____

_____

_____